A FOUNTAIN OPENED.

Last night the second of the week of prayer services was held at the Methodis: Protestant Church. Ray, J. R. Sevier took his text from Zachariah 13: 1. "There shall be a fountain opened to the hones of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness." He spoke of the many prophecies of the coming Christ, especially those which picture Him as the water of life. The opening of this fountain for sin and for uncleanness was to follow an awakening of the people to a sense of sin.

He spoke of the opening of the fountain when Christ came and how it is for all the world. Its nature is:

It spread?. As man cannot restrain living water so man cannot dam up the gracious streams of living water. The gospel is for all the world. No church has a monopoly of the truth. That peopie who would keep the gospel and not give it to others will find that it, like dead waters, would soon stagnate.

It cleanses. After thirst is satisfied comes the desire to cleanse. The fountain of blood is the only cleansing for min and the soul's uncleanness.

I: satisfies. The world is thirsting after something. It is trying every device, but not entisfied. There is but on. thing which can satisfy the cravings of th. buman soul, and that is to drink deep at the fountain of life. David won with the struggle and crowned with success sighed for a drink from the old well at Bethleber a so the soul sighs for the water of life' drink at the fountain where mother and fath er quenched their soul thirst.

It energizes. L'long a dusty and weary road a spring c f clear cool water may not take away to. 9 pilgrim's load, but it will refresh and str angthen him to bear his burden. Christ is the fountain of all blessings. Many litta fountains spring up because of the ms. 'u source. The Sabbath is one of these wh. 'ch flows every week, yet so many fevered men and women pass it by searching for the very satisfaction it gives.

Tonight the service will be held at ti Southern Methodist Church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. J. M. Holmes. An offering will be taken for the Children's Home on Duke street.

MOTORMAN KILLED.

Mr. Archie Fornshill, a motorman on southbound electric train of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, was the victim of a fatal accident shortly before three o'clock this afternoon. No one, it seems, witnessed the accident, but the circumstances indicate that Mr. Fornshill fell from the cab just as the train passed on the bridge over Little Hunting creek, and striking the timbers was doubtless killed, after which his body fell into the creek. The train kept on and the first intimation of the accident was the fact that the train did not stop at Mount Vernon station, when Conductor Husler went forward and found the motorman missing. He brought the car to a the unfortunate man had fallen into the creek and was dead.
